

Domestic Internship Opportunities

F I R E S C H O O L O F M I N I S T R Y

Fall 2006

- Joe Oden Ministries—serving with BRSM graduate Joe Oden in the Atlanta area. Joe’s heart is to equip others in effective evangelism. For more information, please visit www.joeodenministries.com.
- Provision International—serving with Scott and Sarah MacLeod who founded Provisional International with the desire to reach the lost children and youth of Nashville, Tennessee. For more information, please visit www.provisioninternational.com.
- John G Lake Ministries—serving with healing evangelist Curry Blake. Curry Blake travels across America planting churches and training the Body of Christ to walk in divine healing.
- I-HOP Atlanta—training at a 24-hour house of prayer in Atlanta. This would be a great opportunity for those called to worship or intercession. For more information, please visit www.ihop-atl.com.
- Church of the King—ministering during the summer months in the inner city in Berkley, Michigan. Pastor Brad Leach will equip interns in inner city ministry and church planting. For more information, please visit www.churchoftheking.net.
- Restoring the Foundations International Training Center—training in healing and deliverance ministries with Chester and Betsy Kylstra. For over eighteen years, they have been training healing and deliverance teams in the RTF ministry approach. For more information, please visit www.RTFTrainingCenter.org.
- Victory Christian Church—interning as a part of a children’s feeding center in Albany, New York. Pastors Charlie and Tammy Muller’s hearts are to ensure the welfare of inner-city children. For more information, please visit www.Godinthecity.com.

- New Covenant Community of Believers—interning with Pastor David Harwood in the suburbs of New York City. New Covenant provides interns opportunities to train for pastoral ministries, youth ministries, children’s ministries, prophetic intercession, evangelism, and worship.
- Evangel Worship Center—serving with the staff at Evangel Worship Center. Interns can train in worship ministry, youth ministry, media ministry, children’s ministry, and a warehouse ministry that sends supplies worldwide.
- The Refuge—serving with a local church in such areas as Children’s Ministry, Technology Ministry, Website Ministry, and Worship and Arts Ministry. For more information, please visit www.TheRefugeOnline.net
- The Life Church of Charlotte—serving with Jerry and Melanie Stone who pastor a church plant in Charlotte. They would love to train and equip any student desiring experience in church ministry. For more information, please visit www.mercyinternational.net and www.thelifeonline.org.
- Howard Morgan Ministries—serving in an administrative internship with the Morgans. Their ministry headquarters is located in Atlanta, Georgia. For more information, please visit www.howardmorganministries.org.
- Strong Arm Ministries—serving with Jason Oberman in the downtown Charlotte area. Internships will focus on equipping students in power evangelism and street ministry. For more information, please visit www.STRONGARM.org.
- All Nations Outreach Center—serving with Pastor Steve Deal who has a heart to train and disciple interns to do effective ministry in the inner city of Tampa, Florida. There are opportunities to reach out to children, youth, and young adults.
- FIRE Ministries—limited opportunities to serve here at FIRE in the church, school, and FI. For more information, please contact Darrell Jessee at the FIRE School offices.